

House Resolution No. 4370

Whereas, from time to time the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are called upon to acknowledge the professional achievements of an outstanding Missouri educator; and

Whereas, Lynne Chrismer, a marketing teacher at Holt High School in the Wentzville R-IV School District in Wentzville, Missouri, has been named the 2004 Missouri Marketing and Cooperative Teacher of the Year by the Missouri Area Career Technical Educators; and

Whereas, a marketing teacher at Holt High School for the past sixteen years, Lynne Chrismer also serves as an advisor for DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) and teaches perspective marketing teachers at Lindenwood University; and

Whereas, Lynne Chrismer is an esteemed educator who demonstrates considerable competence and remarkable degrees of compassion and understanding; and

Whereas, known for her strength in project-based learning, Lynne Chrismer places her students' academic growth as her number one priority and has worked exceptionally hard to guide her young charges along the path to success with the firm belief that each child can excel when nurtured in an inviting environment conducive to learning; and

Whereas, a 1985 graduate of Holt High School, Lynne Chrismer is a thoughtful, energetic teacher who is loved by her students and co-workers alike; and

Whereas, Lynne Chrismer has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include her husband and three children:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Lynne Chrismer upon her well-deserved selection as the Missouri Marketing and Cooperative Teacher of the Year and in wishing her only the best as she serves on the National Consortium of Entrepreneurship Education that will be held before the Entrepreneurial Education Forum on November 12, 2004, in Texas; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Lynne Chrismer, as a measure of our esteem for her.
